COLUMBIETTES NEWS

Today, the Columbiettes will be getting together in Dillon Hall between 1:00-3:00 p.m. to re-cover the chairs; if you have screw guns and/or staple guns, please bring them! Any women interested in joining the Columbiettes, please call Pat Schneider at 914.526.3327.

ROSARY RECITATION SATURDAY

Come pray the rosary with us this Saturday morning at 8:00 am. Mass is celebrated at 8:30 am and concludes with novena prayers.

1ST FRIDAY EXPOSITION & BENEDICTION

The Blessed Sacrament will be in the monstrance at 9:00 a.m. Friday morning following our 8:30 a.m. Mass, where it shall remain until 12:00 noon with Benediction to follow. Please consider spending some of this time with our Lord in quiet devotion.

SEPTEMBER BIBLE STUDIES

Great Adventure Bible Studies continues Monday mornings in September @ 9:15 a.m. (“The Study of Acts”) and Monday evenings, 7:00 p.m. (“The Study of Matthew’s Gospel”). Registration deadline is June 29th.

NOTES FROM OUR PASTOR . . .

*Tickets for our July 5th parish picnic are on sale after Mass. Please purchase them as soon as possible so we may get an accurate count for shopping. Thanks to all the parish groups that are helping to put on the picnic.

*The Cardinal's Appeal is about over and we are below past levels of family participation. I hope that those families who can will contribute.

*On occasion I receive letters complaining about what is wrong with the parish. It is always what the parish should be doing to please them but never what the critic could do to help the parish. As author and Catholic evangelist Matthew Kelly put it, when people join what they consider a perfect parish, the parish at that moment becomes imperfect. No one is perfect, neither is there a perfect parish. If we all examined our own lives and consciences, we and the parish would both be better off.

*Last Monday was the feast days of Saints John Fisher and Thomas More who gave up their lives rather than compromise their faith. May our Catholic religious and civil leaders show the same courage and speak out in defense of the church and the natural moral law.

*Thanks to the parishioners who have taken care of the flowers at the entrances to the church.

*Thanks to our parishioners who clean and maintain inside and out of both churches.

In Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Frank Samoylo
